'A Dangerous Game'

Followed by the discussion

'A Conversation About Responsible Land Development'

11 May 2015 / 7 pm / Czech Permanent Representation to the EU / Rue Caroly 15, Brussels

Frank Bold is organizing the screening of the documentary 'A Dangerous Game' as part of the One World Film Festival. This sequel to award-winning 'You've Been Trumped' tells the David vs Goliath story of opposition by locals in Scotland and Croatia to the construction of luxury golf courses and chronicles the environmental and social impact of irresponsible land development worldwide.

The screening will be followed by a debate about responsible land development with:

Anthony Baxter, director of the film

Marion Alecian, project manager at ARAU, non-profit association that examines both public and private urban development projects.

Peter Thoelen, director of VIBE, Flemish institute promoting healthy and eco-friendly buildings, natural building materials, and sustainable green urban development.

Is it possible to balance profit with the interests of the environment and local communities?

Free of charge. Tickets must be registered in advance at: www.oneworld.cz/2015/brussels-programme/14
